Thank you for your Electronics magazine subscription and WELCOME!

We didn't want any delay due to computerizing, so here is the first issue* -- with a typed label. Future issues will be sent using the normal process.

We are sure you will agree that Electronics is the publication tailored to your professional needs. There should be something of value to you in each of the 26 issues you will receive.

Let us hear from you concerning our editorial coverage.
Your inputs can be valuable to our planning. Also, remember that we will refund the entire portion of the subscription if you are not completely satisfied.

Again welcome, and we look forward to serving you well beyond the coming year.

Cordially,
